- Resolution: MR_borseman23 +10"

Incident 2

- Claiming team: Vanquish eSports
- Claimed team: Hydra Rennsport
- Claimed driver: RSHYDRA_NicoSM
- Replay time: 00:33.000
- Lap: 1
- Description of the incident: The HYDRA driver initiates a move towards the inside at 00:26.738, anticipating the VQS driver's movement in that same direction. After this initial move to the right, he keeps the steering wheel straight at all times. At that moment, HYDRA was clearly ahead, while the VQS driver's move occurs afterwards.
- Resolution: No further action

Incident 3

- Claiming team: Maniac's Revolution
- Claimed team: Visceral Esports
- Claimed driver: JMarti
- Replay time: 02:15.000
- Lap: 1
- Description of the incident: Although the VSR driver brakes very late, he manages to slow the car in time, positioning himself alongside during the braking phase and even partially ahead of Borseman. He also leaves sufficient space throughout the corner and on exit.
- Resolution: Racing incident

ROUND 02 | INCIDENT RESOLUTION

April 17th 2026

Incident 4

- Claiming team: Vanquish eSports
- Claimed team: Maniacs Revolution
- Claimed driver: XGR-Ortegas93
- Replay time: 03:06.000
- Lap: -
- Description of the incident: The MR driver attempts to place the car without a realistic overtaking opportunity, causing contact with the VQS driver and making him lose two or more positions.
- Resolution: XGR-Ortegas93 +5" G4.1

Incident 5

- Claiming team: Vanquish eSports
- Claimed team: Team Monza Racing
- Claimed driver: garasa-91
- Replay time: 03:14.000
- Lap: 2
- Description of the incident: The action is considered a consequence of the previous situation, where the VQS driver is carrying less speed while the TMR driver is constrained by the racing line. As a result, both drivers converge into the same trajectory.
- Resolution: Racing incident

Incident 6

- Claiming team: HYDRA Rennsport
- Claimed team: Maniacs Revolution
- Claimed driver: Ortegas
- Replay time: 10:36.000
- Lap: 5
- Description of the incident: The MR driver makes a mistake that takes him off the racing line and reduces his speed in a narrow section. He then attempts to defend by moving to the right, leaving no space for the faster approaching driver. The HYDRA driver manages to overtake, resulting in contact between both drivers.
Following this, both drivers approach Turn 8 under loss of control. At 10:34.812, the MR driver accelerates while the cars to his right are already braking, causing a second contact with the HYDRA driver and allowing him to gain the position.
- Resolution: Mr-Ortegas93 +3" L1.1

ROUND 02 | INCIDENT RESOLUTION

Incident 7

- Claiming team: Maniac's Revolution
- Claimed team: Team Monza Racing
- Claimed driver: garasa-91
- Replay time: 10:38.000
- Lap: 5
- Description of the incident: The TMR driver makes contact from behind with the MR driver. Both MR and HYDRA drivers were recovering from a previous incident that resulted in a crash; however, the TMR driver continues accelerating, worsening the situation. This contact causes the MR driver to spin, losing four positions and additional time.
- Resolution: garasa-91 +14" (G6.2 + damage)

RACE 2

Incident 8

- Claiming team: Kraken Stains GT
- Claimed team: EPLF Simracing
- Claimed driver: Alvarjto
- Replay time: 18:45.000
- Lap: 1
- Description of the incident: The EPLF driver causes contact resulting in the KRK driver losing two or more positions.
- Resolution: Alvarjto +5" G4.1

Incident 9

- Claiming team: Kraken Stains GT
- Claimed team: EPLF Simracing
- Claimed driver: EPLF_seeco_17
- Replay time: 29:46.000
- Lap: 13
- Description of the incident: The EPLF driver hits the rear of the KRK driver, forcing him off track and causing him to lose several positions.
- Resolution: EPLF_seeco_17 +5" G4.1

- Claimed driver: jm-brea
- Replay time: 27:50.000
- Lap: 13
- Description of the incident: The ARM driver makes three clear direction changes along the straight with a car within one second behind, in order to defend the position.
- Resolution: J.Brea13 +1" L2.1

Incident 11

- Claiming team: Freem eSports
- Claimed team: AGT Drivers
- Claimed driver: AGT_ManuOrtega
- Replay time: 28:05.000
- Lap: 13
- Description of the incident: Although the AGT driver makes contact from behind with the SFE driver, the latter performs a movement under braking that contributes to the incident.
- Resolution: Warning SFE & AGT

Incident 12

- Claiming team: Anexion Racing Team
- Claimed team: Ninety Two Esports
- Claimed driver: N2_Nicholas58
- Replay time: 22:46.000
- Lap: 13
- Description of the incident: After running wide, the N2 driver rejoins the track in a controlled and progressive manner, shifting early into third gear to optimize traction. He keeps to the right, avoiding the grass, and returns to the racing line in an orderly way. It is considered that the AXN driver could have used the remaining track space and left more room to avoid the contact.
- Resolution: Racing incident
